

PARKS IN LAKEWOOD RANCH FOR ACTIVE LIVING:

Here's Our Pick

Lakewood Ranch's commitment to preserving natural habitats and promoting active living makes it an ideal community for those seeking a healthy lifestyle. Thus, the top park selections on our list each offer unique landscapes and environments that facilitate various outdoor activities.

Summerfield Community Park:

The playground is top notch with swings, slides, and climbing walls. There are several sports facilities, including basketball, tennis and pickleball courts, where you can socialize with neighbors over a pick-up game or league play. The park also has open fields and a multi-purpose trail, making it an ideal spot for running, walking, or cycling.

Greenbrook Adventure Park:

Greenbrook Adventure Park is also home to several miles of multi-purpose trails, providing visitors with stunning views of the adjacent preserve while hiking, jogging, or biking.

There are basketball and volleyball courts, as well as soccer and lacrosse fields for team sports.

Bob Gardner Community Park:

Bob Gardner Community Park offers several trails for hiking, jogging, or biking through nature, with beautiful views. The grassy open fields are ideal for picnics, with available reserved spaces for private events.

Park also has several amenities you won't find in other parks, such as a BMX track and a dedicated disc golf course.

Braden River Nature Park:

Braden River Nature Park is a hidden gem among the parks in Lakewood Ranch known for its natural beauty and preservation of natural wildlife. The park offers a unique experience for visitors to connect with nature.

Park has a fishing pier and covered picnic tables, making it a perfect spot for family gatherings, outdoor birthday parties, and picnicking with serene lake views.

Lakewood Ranch District Park:

Lakewood Ranch Park is one of the largest parks in Lakewood Ranch, dedicated to sports and fitness enthusiasts. This park is an athlete's dream, with fields for softball, soccer, football, volleyball and basketball courts.

For families, there is a playground equipped with innovative play structures as well as splash pads that keep children cool and entertained.

The parks in Lakewood Ranch offer opportunities for visitors to stay active and connect with others.

And when it comes to finding your dream home here,

Sold By Chenkus has you covered.

SOLD BY
CHENKUS

941-348-2653

contact@chenkus.com